44160408241	29/10/16 02:03 (Fri – Sat)	Assault/public order - Fight inside the shop which staff get in the middle of and manage to eject the protagonists. There was a build up to the fight which does not seem to have been picked up by staff until too late.
44160417988	05/11/16 00:50 - 01:00 (Fri – Sat)	Male ran into shop stating he was being pursued by another with a knife - Incident not confirmed and further action not supported.
44160428216	13/11/16 03:10 (Sat – Sun)	Group refused to leave. When manager remonstrates with them a fight breaks out between staff and customers. Minor injury caused to one customer. Internal CCTV viewed by officers and shows all staff using reasonable force to eject customers other than the licence holder, Seyit CAL, who is described as kicking and punching out at the aggrieved continuously. No formal complaints received. Open past permitted time on the licence.	A2 (occurrence report) A3 (occurrence report)
44160483273 44160483244	23/12/16 18:30 - 20:21 (Fri)	Assault and criminal damage - Incident involving 3 males, one of whom states he was assaulted by staff around the back of the premises. This same male is alleged to have then gone around the front of the shop and smashed the front window. Staff spoken to and deny any assault taking place around the back of the shop, stating the male must have fallen over. It is likely that the males were caught urinating around the rear of the premises, a fight ensued in which one of them got injured and they then went around the front of the shop and cracked the front window before making off. Mr Cal changed his version of the event several times.	A4 (occurrence report) A5 (occurrence report) A6 (PACE notebook notes)
44160484636 44160484667 44160484657	25/12/16 02:13 (Sat – Sun)	Assault and racially aggravated public order – Male was banging on the shop door making demands for food and a taxi, it was alleged he was also abusive; insulting staff and Islam. Two staff members are then seen running out of the alley to the side of the premises and assaulting the males. Aggrieved received cut to back of head, bridge of nose and his teeth were sore. Another member of the group was grabbed around the throat. All parties declined to pursue the matter and there were no complaints or further investigation. Suspect identified as Ali Cal (brother of the licence holder and member of staff) was said to have used a rolling pin in the assault on one of the two males. Ali Cal lied and made a false allegation of assault which was disproved by the CCTV review and the	A7 (occurrence report) A8 (occurrence report) A9 (Call Taker's log) linked public order offence was not pursued due to lack of distress by any party. Report of P.C. 3007 Bradley following a licensing visit to the Kebab Shop on the 8 th January 2017. The premises were found to be in breach of 2 conditions of the licence, as well as having breached their opening hours. Issues raised from recent incidents were addressed and advice on how to reduce further incidents of crime and disorder was given. They were warned regarding their conduct and the way in which the premises were operated and advised that if this continued they would face more robust action.
