Written Question from Mr Steve Goodman to Cllr Adrian Axford – Chairman of the Audit Committee

“If the council has looked at the costs of failing to do anything now in response to the climate crisis?”

Supplemental question:

“if not why not?”.

“The council takes environmental matters seriously and has a strong track record for example as one of the best council’s for waste recycling. The council recognises the impact that changes in weather patterns are having and takes this into account in its service planning.”
