Item	Implementation of a New Charge For Re-Rating Visits Under The Food Hygiene Rating Scheme
Decision reference	05/17
Notice of Decision Published	Monday, 11 September 2017
Decision taken	THAT the introduction of a charge on a full cost recovery basis of £205 for a re-rating visit under the FHRS, applicable from 1 October 2017 and reviewed on an annual basis thereafter as part of the council's review of fees and charges, be agreed.
Reason for decision	The new charge supports a number of priorities, particularly: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Supporting the local economy, making the island a better place and keeping it safe.• Ensuring that all the resources available to the island are used in the most effective way in achieving the island priorities.
Additional reasons	The scheme plays an important part of self-regulation, economic growth, competition and improvement of standards in Island based businesses.
Options considered and rejected	Option one – No change Option two - Introduce charges for a re-rating visit under the FHRS with a discount or exemption.
