

18. Discussion of Individual Officers

No discussion shall take place in a meeting about the terms or conditions of employment or the conduct of any officer of the council unless the meeting has first considered whether to exclude the public.