

19. Non-Attendance at Meetings

Any councillor who is not likely to meet the requirement in the Local Government Act 1972 to attend at least one meeting of either the council, a committee or a sub-committee in any period of six consecutive months should write to the Monitoring Officer explaining their non-attendance. The Monitoring Officer will report to Full Council, which will decide whether the councillor can remain a member of the council. Approval to continue in office must be given before the six months expires.
