

Governance Compliance Statement 2022-23

Non-compliant areas: Action plan

Three key areas of non-compliance:

- 1) Knowledge and understanding:
 - a) Pension board to have its own policy on knowledge and understanding requirements.
 - b) All pension board members to have a personalised training plan in place that is regularly monitored and updated.
 - c) The administering authority should establish and maintain policies and arrangements for acquiring and retaining knowledge and understanding.
 - d) Administering authorities should offer pre-appointment training or mentoring if appropriate.
 - e) The members of the pension board should be familiar with the Additional Voluntary Contribution (AVC) options offered by the Fund, including the choice of investments offered to members and the relative performance of those investment options.
- 2) Conflicts of interest:
 - a) The administering authority should have in place an appropriate conflicts of interest policy, clearly identifying to whom any potential conflict should be reported.
 - b) The conflicts of interest policy should have a regular review date incorporated in to it.
 - c) The administering authority should maintain a register of all conflicts (and potential conflicts) that are raised, reviewing them appropriately.
- 3) Disputes and resolution:
 - a) The administering authority should regularly review its dispute process to ensure its effectiveness and that the necessary timescales are being met (inc. the employer processes at stage 1).
 - b) The administering authority has ensured all scheme employers have appropriate arrangements in place for dealing with stage 1 disputes.

Item 1a) concerning the board specific policy on knowledge and understanding requirements is an overarching theme in the compliance statement which does not have a specific reference in the published document. Following the government's published response to the Next steps for investments in the LGPS consultation, this requirement is likely to be expanded to cover the pension committee as well. No specific action plan is provided below to cover this

1) Knowledge and understanding

Item 1a) concerning the board specific policy on knowledge and understanding requirements is an overarching theme in the compliance statement which does not have a specific reference in the published document. Following the government's published response to the Next steps for investments in the LGPS consultation, this requirement is likely to be expanded to cover the pension committee as well. No specific action plan is provided below to cover this specific non-compliant area, although the plans proposed for the remaining 4 items under this heading will contribute to its achievement. In each item, requirements are deemed to apply to both committee and board members.
